

FIELDVIEW FESTIVAL CLEAN UP RALLY 2024

The organizer of the Fieldview Festival, Pauline Cameron, reached out to the club to see if we'd be interested in exploring the festival grounds and picking up any litter we came across. Kate and "Mimzy" chatted with the organizer and the farmer, and they set up a club dig for August 10th. Mimzy got there early and hid three prize tokens, but only Jon and John managed to find two of them. The event wrapped up with a raffle and prizes for the best discoveries.
